B.S. Remedial Education, University of Wyoming

Bio:

Kinta is a Wyoming native, growing up in Rawlins and outside of Saratoga, and graduating from the University of Wyoming.

She has taught grades K – 12 with an emphasis in individual needs and remediation. Serving as a Peer Support Specialist at Carbon Counseling Services since August, 2013, she is able to share life experiences emphasizing key principles of integrity and respect for others.

Prior to her position with Carbon County Counseling Center, she and her husband, Gilbert (Gib) managed Brush Creek cattle and guest ranch for almost twenty years.

Kinta is the mother of three adult children, one who served with the Marines in Afghanistan, one who is working as a CPA in Geneva, Switzerland, and the oldest is the owner of J.W. Hugus in Saratoga, WY. Kinta enjoys travel, different cultures, riding and caring for her seven horses, exploring “off the beaten path”, rafting, fishing and woodworking. She enjoys time outdoors with family especially her five grandsons.
