

Patrick Gonzales, MBA

Executive Director

B.S. Regis University

M.B.A. University of Phoenix

Areas of concentration Economics, Management and Marketing

Bio:

Patrick was born and raised in Rawlins, graduated from Rawlins High School in 1979, and left to pursue a musical career. Along the way he secured his undergraduate degree in business administration with a concentration in management, and double minors in marketing and economics, and later obtained his master's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing.

Patrick brings 28 years of professional business experience to Carbon County Counseling Center. He believes in fiscal accountability, a strict code of business ethics and best business practices as well as the desire to be more visible to the community and county with stronger efforts in marketing the organization and the services the center provides.

Patrick is the proud father of a daughter, Kasey. Gonzales is the son of the late William and Margaret Sandoval-Gonzales. His interests include motorcycle riding, music, mountain biking, spending time outdoors, and spending time with family and friends.